Many people working from home have a whole new understanding of the word distraction. From cats sitting on laptop keyboards when their humans are trying to type emails to kids loudly singing along with their favorite cartoon in the background during video conference calls. Although these “co-workers” can be annoying, they can also be quite comical! Join us Wednesday, April 22 on Facebook to share funny videos or pictures of your favorite distractions or even to share your new favorite at-home desk item. Post in the comments for all to see!

Way to go!

Congratulations to Anthony Hyginus who has successfully completed both the written and oral comprehensive examinations for the Master of Arts degree.

Many thanks also to Anthony's examiners: Dr. James Stoud, Fr. George Mangiaracina, and Fr. Michael Udoekpo.

Virtual Coffee Breaks

The IT dept helped organize two virtual coffee breaks on Thursday, April 16, to help our staff stay in touch with each other and share our experiences of the pandemic. Thank you for putting this together!

Holy Mass

On April 16, Fr. Raúl Gómez offered Holy Mass for the intentions of all our faculty, staff, seminarians, students, Board of Directors, sponsors, benefactors, and friends. In the gospel passage from Luke 24:35-48, Jesus enters the room where the disciples are gathered behind locked doors and greets them saying "Peace be with you." They are gathered together in fear but also to support one another. They are startled and terrified thinking they are seeing a ghost. He asks them: "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts?" Once they see it is truly him, they are incredulous for joy and were amazed. It is Fr. Raúl's hope that as we remain behind locked doors, we will open the doors of our hearts and minds to allow his peace to permeate them. And we too will feel the incredible joy of encountering the Risen Lord.

Thank You Maintenance!

Thank you to the maintenance staff for all the hard work they do cleaning and maintaining our seminary. The cleanliness and efficiency of the building is a joy for all of us.
