"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things." - Philippians 4:8

Entrance to Postulancy

During Adoration with the community at Sacred Heart Monastery on January 21, Jonathan Nguyen-Vuong, Jacob Smith and Michael Wodarczyk entered postulancy. They join Celsus Robert, who became a postulant last year, in preparation for the novitiate. Fr. Andrzej Sudol is the postulancy director. Click here to view a recording of the Livestream of the ceremony.

You are invited to attend an optional book club, featuring books about practices that can help Sacred Heart and ourselves flourish. The first book will be “Dare to Lead” by Brené Brown. A description of the book is below, as well as links to where you can access the book.

The first talk will be on Tuesday, February 23 at 12:30pm - 1:15pm CST via Zoom:

Meeting ID: 882 1397 5291

Passcode: 720939

You are welcome to join the conversation even if you do not finish the book. There is also a Ted Talk you might find interesting here.

Some sources for the book include:

Here is the description of the book from the publisher's website:

Leadership is not about titles, status, and wielding power. A leader is anyone who takes responsibility for recognizing the potential in people and ideas and has the courage to develop that potential. When we dare to lead, we don't pretend to have the right answers; we stay curious and ask the right questions. We don't see power as finite and hoard it; we know that power becomes infinite when we share it with others. We don't avoid difficult conversations and situations; we lean into vulnerability when it's necessary to do good work.

But daring leadership in a culture defined by scarcity, fear, and uncertainty requires skill-building around traits that are deeply and uniquely human. The irony is that we're choosing not to invest in developing the hearts and minds of leaders at the exact same time as we're scrambling to figure out what we have to offer that machines and AI can't do better and faster. What can we do better? Empathy, connection, and courage, to start.

We hope you can join us for some interesting conversation!

In Memory of Fr. Bob Tucker, SCJ

Remembering Fr. Bob Tucker, SCJ

Slightly after 1:00 pm on January 23, Fr. Bob Tucker, SCJ, died. He was 68. Originally from Detroit, MI, he was professed in 1975 and ordained in 1982.

In recent years, Fr. Bob had struggled with a respiratory disorder that led to a lung transplant last July. He was unable to fully recover from the transplant and moved into palliative care shortly before his death. Fr. Quang Nguyen, SCJ (vice provincial superior), Fr. Jim Schroeder, SCJ, (a member of his community at Sacred Heart at Monastery Lake) and Mary Balistreri (province director of healthcare) were with him when he died.

Arrangements are pending.

May the angels lead him into paradise. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
