Book Club discussion to focus on vulnerability in leadership

All are welcome to participate in an optional Book Club on Tuesday, Mar. 23, 12:30 to 1:15 p.m. Discussion will center around “Dare to Lead” by Brené Brown. Any who have not read the book are encouraged to watch the Ted Talk in advance: www.ted.com/talks/brene_brown_the_power_of_vulnerability#t-110398. Join the Book Club via Zoom at ID 882 1397 5291 and passcode 720939.

See the HR newsletter “Answer the Call”

This week’s edition covers vaccine safety, and quarantine questions. Even once you are vaccinated, we still follow CDC guidelines: wear masks, practice social distancing, and wash hands often. From www.shsst.edu, look under the RESOURCES menu and click on COVID-19 to find “Answer the Call” and much more.

Registrations open for important events

Register for the Mar. 10 Ministry of Lector (email lkaestner@shsst.edu), the Mar. 17 Dehon Lecture (watch for an invitation in your email), and the Mar. 21 Lux Center Public Lecture and Mar. 22 Lux Center Morning Lecture (visit www.shsst.edu/luxcenter-eventsandnews/).

The Very Rev. Edward Kilianski, SCJ, Provincial Superior of the Priests of the Sacred Heart-United States Province, led SHSST’s Ash Wednesday Day of Recollection Feb. 17.

Stations of the Cross open to all on campus

Stations of the Cross will be prayed at 5:10 p.m. each Friday during Lent in the Sacred Heart Chapel. Faculty and staff scheduled to be on campus Fridays are welcome to stay and participate.

Graduation plans in progress

Sacred Heart will send invitations via email this year for Solemn Vespers with Commencement at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, May 7. To maintain social distancing and limit the number of people on campus, digital links will be provided so the wider community may attend virtually.
