Conferencia Hispana Católica

On Saturday, September 25, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee held a Conferencia Hispana Católica (Hispanic Catholic Conference). The topic of the conference was "Los Movimientos Eclesiales: Construyendo Puentes Evangelizadores" which translates in English to "Ecclesial Movements: Building Evangelizing Bridges". Fr. José González, Sacred Heart's Director of the Hispanic Ministry Preparation Program, was one of the presenters of the conference. The other presenter was Andrés Arango, Delegate of the Obispo for Hispanic Ministry and Director of Evangelization.

Congratulations on a successful conference!

National Hispanic Heritage Month

Each year across the U.S people observe National Hispanic Heritage Month by celebrating the rich histories, art, stories, and cultural traditions of those whose ancestry can be traced back to Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean, Central, and South America. The month begins September 15 and ends October 15. the theme for this year celebration is "Esperanza: A Celebration of our Heritage and Bold Future". We also celebrate this keeping in mind the rich contribution of Hispanics in the life of the U. S Church.

Fall 2021 Dehon Lecture

"The Sacred Heart and Divine Mercy: a comparison and contrast between these two streams of spirituality in the life of the Church." This was the topic of Wednesday's Dehon Lecture at Sacred Heart. The morning presenter was Dr. Robert Stackpole. A former Anglican priest, he converted to Roman Catholicism in 1994 and holds a Doctorate in Theology from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome (the “Angelicum”). To read more about the lecture, click here.

Birthdays

Each month, birthdays of faculty, staff and students will be posted on the bulletin boards in the mailroom, dish room, and outside the Saint Joseph Chapel.

Schedule for the week

Faculty, staff and students with @shsst.edu email addresses can each access the most up-to-date schedule information by importing shared calendars (Seminary Calendar, Liturgical Calendar, Room Calendars and co-workers) into their own Calendar in Microsoft Outlook.
