

Title IX Contact information

If you believe that you or someone else has experienced sexual harassment, you may report it directly to the Title IX Coordinator or any SHSST employee.

ANY employee of MUST report a possible Title IX violation to the Title IX Coordinator when he or she has actual knowledge, either from the potential Complainant, third party, or by direct observation.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible to initiate the Title IX Complaint Process when he has actual knowledge that a Title IX violation may have occurred. He coordinates the process and keeps records.

For employee contact information, see the Department Directory on the SHSST web site.

The current Title IX Coordinator is Dr. Robert F. Gotcher. Please contact him at any time day or night if you wish to report a potential Title IX violation. His contact information is as follows:
