Announcements

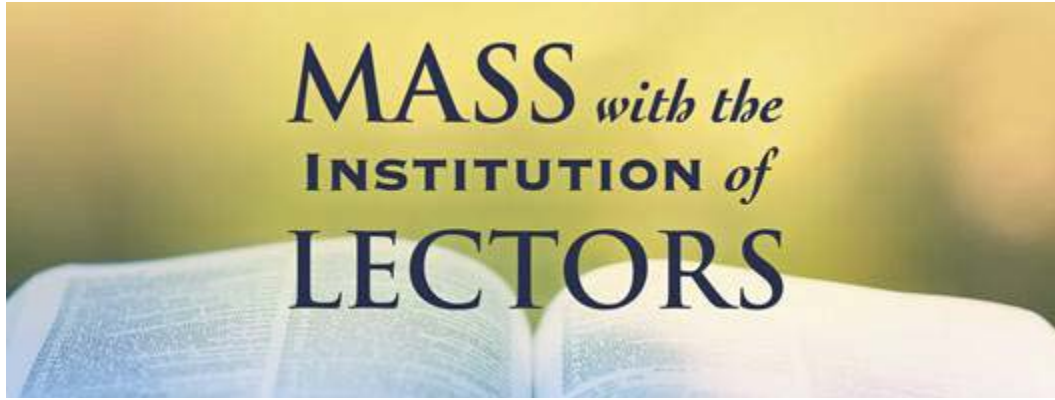

Greeting from Rome!

Dr. Paul Monson, Fr. Vien Nguyen, SCJ, Fr. Tom Knoebel, and Fr. Raúl Gómez SDS sent greetings to Sacred Heart from their trip in Rome! They went to Rome for conferences and meetings. Most of the images are from a symposium that included a talk by Pope Francis.

"The symposium, "Toward a Fundamental Theology of the Priesthood," seeks to encourage an understanding of ministerial priesthood that is rooted in the priesthood of all believers conferred at baptism, getting away from the idea of ordained ministry as belonging to "ecclesiastical power"." To read more about the symposium, click here.

The image with all four men (bottom left) is at the SCJ Generalate after Pranzo (noon meal). We thank them for all of their work!

Ecumenical Interreligious Lunch Program

On February 11, The Ecumenical Interreligious Committee welcomed a very special guest to SHSST, Fr. Rewis Awadalla. Fr. Rewis is a Coptic Orthodox priest who serves as Pastor of St. Mary & St. Antonious Coptic Orthodox Church on the corner of 94 and Rawson Avenue in Oak Creek. Fr. Rewis lectured at Sacred Heart five years ago and gave a fascinating presentation about the Coptic brothers and sisters. The Copts trace their roots back to the people of Pharaoh's time. In addition to his local pastoral work, Fr. Rewis teaches at Coptic seminaries around the country.

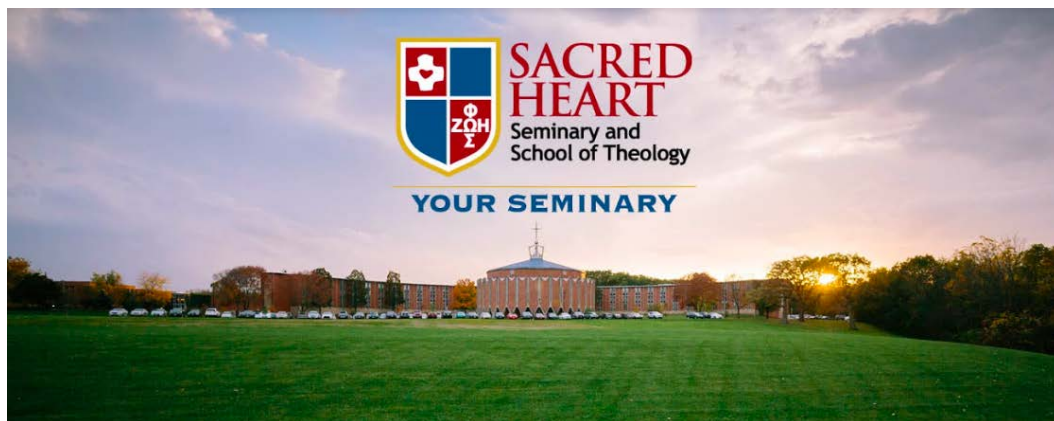

Congratulations!

It is Sacred Heart's pleasure to announce a new publication by Dcn. Steven Kramer, Associate Professor of Pastoral Studies/Director of Homiletics/Director of Recruitment:

Day of Recollection with Bishop William Wack, Pensacola-Tallahassee

Sacred Heart will have a Day of Recollection on March 2 with Bishop William Wack from the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee. We invite you to also reflect on the topic of the day.

“Leave all things behind; I am doing something new”

The first reflection will focus on clearing away old ways of thinking and acting. God continually calls us to turn away from sin and focus anew on Him. We all no doubt feels weighed down by past hurts, disappointments, and sins. How do we let go of that? How can we begin to move on?

For the second reflection, the emphasis will be on the beautiful passage from the Book of Revelation: “Behold, I make all things new” (Rev. 21:5). Our God promises to bring renewal to all of creation – and to each of us individually – again and again. How is this possible? Where do we see evidence of this renewal in our lives?

Lent is the perfect time for us to reflect on these things. At the celebration of the Eucharist today we see this theme of ‘turning away from sin/accepting the Good News’ come alive. I pray that this day of reflection will be fruitful for your spiritual growth and your discipleship with the Lord.

The schedule for the day is as follows (for internal personnel only):

7:30 am: Solemn Morning Prayer
9:30 am: Morning Reflection by Bishop William Wack
11:00 am: Community Mass, Bishop Wack presiding
12:00 pm: Community Lunch
1:30 pm: Afternoon Reflection by Bishop William Wack
3:00 pm: Confession
4:30 pm: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
