

Sacred Heart FACULTY PUBLICATIONS

Faithful Service to the Church through Scholarly Quality and Teaching Excellence

The faculty at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology have distinguished themselves as insightful scholars and dynamic teachers. Motivated to serve the Church and society through the search for truth, the faculty are widely published, as is evident in the enclosed listing of their most recent publications. Just as impressive is their ability to foster robust learning in the classroom. Over the past five years, the overall average received by the faculty from student course evaluation is astonishingly high: a score of 4.6 out of 5. The faculty is particularly adept at connecting and applying intellectual concepts to pastoral issues and ministerial situations. As a result, Sacred Heart alumni are equipped to address the 21st-century's emerging challenges in advancing the work of the Church in proclaiming Christ and forming disciples. Over 30 dioceses and religious orders send their seminarians to Sacred Heart because each graduate is well prepared to serve as a living embodiment of Christ's message, with a deep understanding of Catholic teaching, and an earnest pastoral heart.

Committed to Scholarly and Professional Development

Maintaining faculty engagement with ongoing research and writing projects is essential, as contributing to the ongoing search for truth and the dissemination of knowledge is a constitutive element of the scholarly vocation.
