

Fall 2024 Cor Unum Cost Information

Program Tuition (Fall 2024 Cohort)

The $20,460 (33 credits x $620 per credit hour) tuition was reduced to $9,500 for the Fall 2024 cohort! Sacred Heart made this decision in support of our vision to “Conform our World to the Heart of Christ.”

Note that technology and graduation fees ($150 each) are reflected in the totals below. Book costs are additional.

TUITION
Fall 2023 semester	$ 1,880
Spring 2024 semester	$ 1,880
*May/Summer 2024 session	$ 1,870
Fall 2024	$ 1,880
Spring 2025	$ 1,880
May 2025	$ 1,010
TOTAL:	$ 10,400

If you are able to contribute beyond the $9500 and fees, please consider making a donation to the school.

*During the May/Summer 2025 session, students have two potential study options. If you select the Archaeological Expedition to the Holy Land (or its alternative if the Holy Land is not a viable option) as one of these options, there will be expenses related to travel and lodging in addition to the tuition amount listed above.

Tuition and other fees will be posted in Populi prior to the start of the semester. Payments can be made online or directly to the Finance office in US dollars. See the school catalog for more information.

The Magnus and Marguerite Thompson Scholarships

Thanks to a generous donor, we have a limited number of need-based scholarships available. Please contact Michael for more information: mbeard@shsst.edu.

Archbishop's Scholars Fund

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee has a scholarship fund to assist lay ministers employed by the archdiocese in their pursuit of graduate-level education. For more information, see: <https://www.archmil.org/Lay-Ministry/Archbishops-Scholars-Fund.htm>.

Federal Assistance:

Students in the Cor Unum program are eligible for federal unsubsidized student loans. Federal student loans can be used to defray any direct (e.g., tuition, fees, books) or indirect (e.g., living expenses) costs associated with your graduate studies. If you need information on how to apply for a student loan, please contact:

Mr. Tyler Galstad – VP of Finance and Administration, tgalstad@shsst.edu.

We also encourage applicants to check with employers and parishes, since some do provide tuition assistance. Tuition rates for the Cor Unum cohort are set first semester and frozen for the two years. Students will not see any increase in tuition. If you have additional questions during the process, please contact Michael Beard, Director of M.A. Programs, mbeard@shsst.edu, 414-858-4655.
