Dehonian Spirituality

"It is our fervor, that is our spiritual exercises well done, which will attract divine blessing, and vocations will come by the influence, not of our qualities and natural talents, but of our virtue."

Leo John Dehon, SCJ, Cahiers Falleur

“Catholic Heritage II—Sint Unum” Rome pilgrimage and letter from Pope Francis

During the week of spring break, Sacred Heart's propaedeutic seminarians and those of the Green Bay Diocese as well as other seminarians and faculty members from Sacred Heart undertook a pilgrimage for “Catholic Heritage II—Sint Unum” in Rome. While there, His Holiness, Pope Francis, gave Sacred Heart a letter addressed to seminarians and to all associated with Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology. It is a wonderful message of encouragement. To read the letter, click here.
