Dehonian Spirituality

“Pray for our vocational recruiting; our missions require a large amount of personnel. And it is not only members we desire; it is above all the fervor and generosity of those who come to us.”

Leo John Dehon, SCJ, Circular Letters, #32, June 29, 1922

Announcements

Spring Lux Center Lectures

Sacred Heart was honored to host Professor Massimo Faggioli, a scholar and professor of theology and religious studies at Villanova University, who gave this year's Lux Lectures. His talks focused on Antisemitism and the Roman Catholic Church Since Vatican II. Both talks generated great dialogue and questions. The lectures were recorded and are on YouTube.

Staff and Faculty Development

On March 20, the Sacred Heart staff and faculty participated in a joint development session given by the Formation Department. It was a great opportunity for the staff and faculty to learn about the role of formation in the seminary and to ask their questions to the formation team. Thank you everyone for your hard work and participation!

Cor Unum Alumni in Ministry

Steve Fluor, Cor Unum 2020 graduate, is pictured here in his office at St. James in Franklin, WI. Steve serves as Director of Pastoral Care and oversees many activities serving the people of the parish. Mary Jo Henneman, who will graduate from Cor Unum this May, also works at St. James, as the Director of Religious Education.

Thank you, Steve and Mary Jo for your ministries!

Attention alumni: We would love to share more stories about your ministries! Please send photos and updates to Rachel Allison, at rallison@shsst.edu.

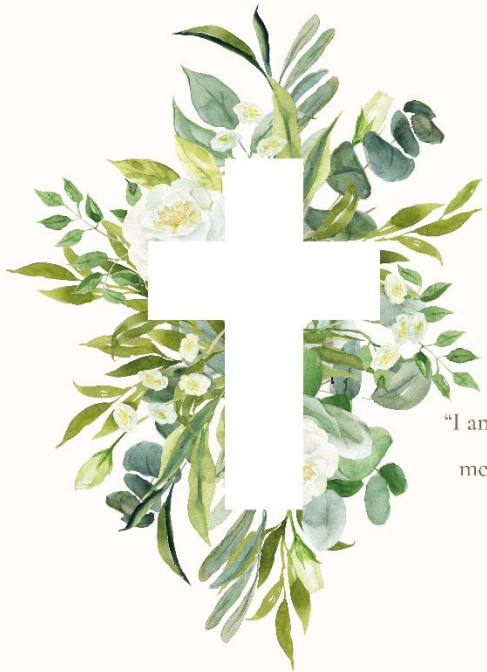

Congratulations!

It is Sacred Heart's pleasure to announce that Dr. James Stroud, Associate Professor of Moral Theology, recently hosted and participated in another Sed Contra podcast (part of the Sacra Doctrina Project) which was published last week. This time the topic was the "Quest for the Historical St. Thomas Aquinas" with fellow Sacra Doctrina Project members Fr. Cajetan Cuddy, O.P., and Dr. Matthew Minerd. Please see the link below:
